NOTICE TO INDUSTRY

Date Issued: 21 May 2015

Notice Number: 04/2015

Subject: Southern Gulf Island Anchorages

Geographic Area: Cowichan Bay, Ladysmith, Plumper Sound

Communication: Ships have anchored in various locations around the Southern Gulf Islands. While some of these existing anchorage locations have become unusable due to the growth in ship sizes, other locations have come to cause social concerns for nearby residents.

Details: The amended anchor locations indicated for Cowichan Bay, Ladysmith & Plumper Sound on pages 2, 3 & 4 will be used on a trial basis for 12 months, commencing 21 May 2015. A review will be conducted on completion of the 12-month trial period. Anchor position information on charts and other nautical publications will be amended, if required, subsequent to the review.

The numbers of anchorages in Plumper Sound remains at five but the positions have been shifted. One of the anchor positions is allocated for emergency use.

The number of anchorages in Cowichan Bay has been reduced to six (from eight) and the positions have been shifted.

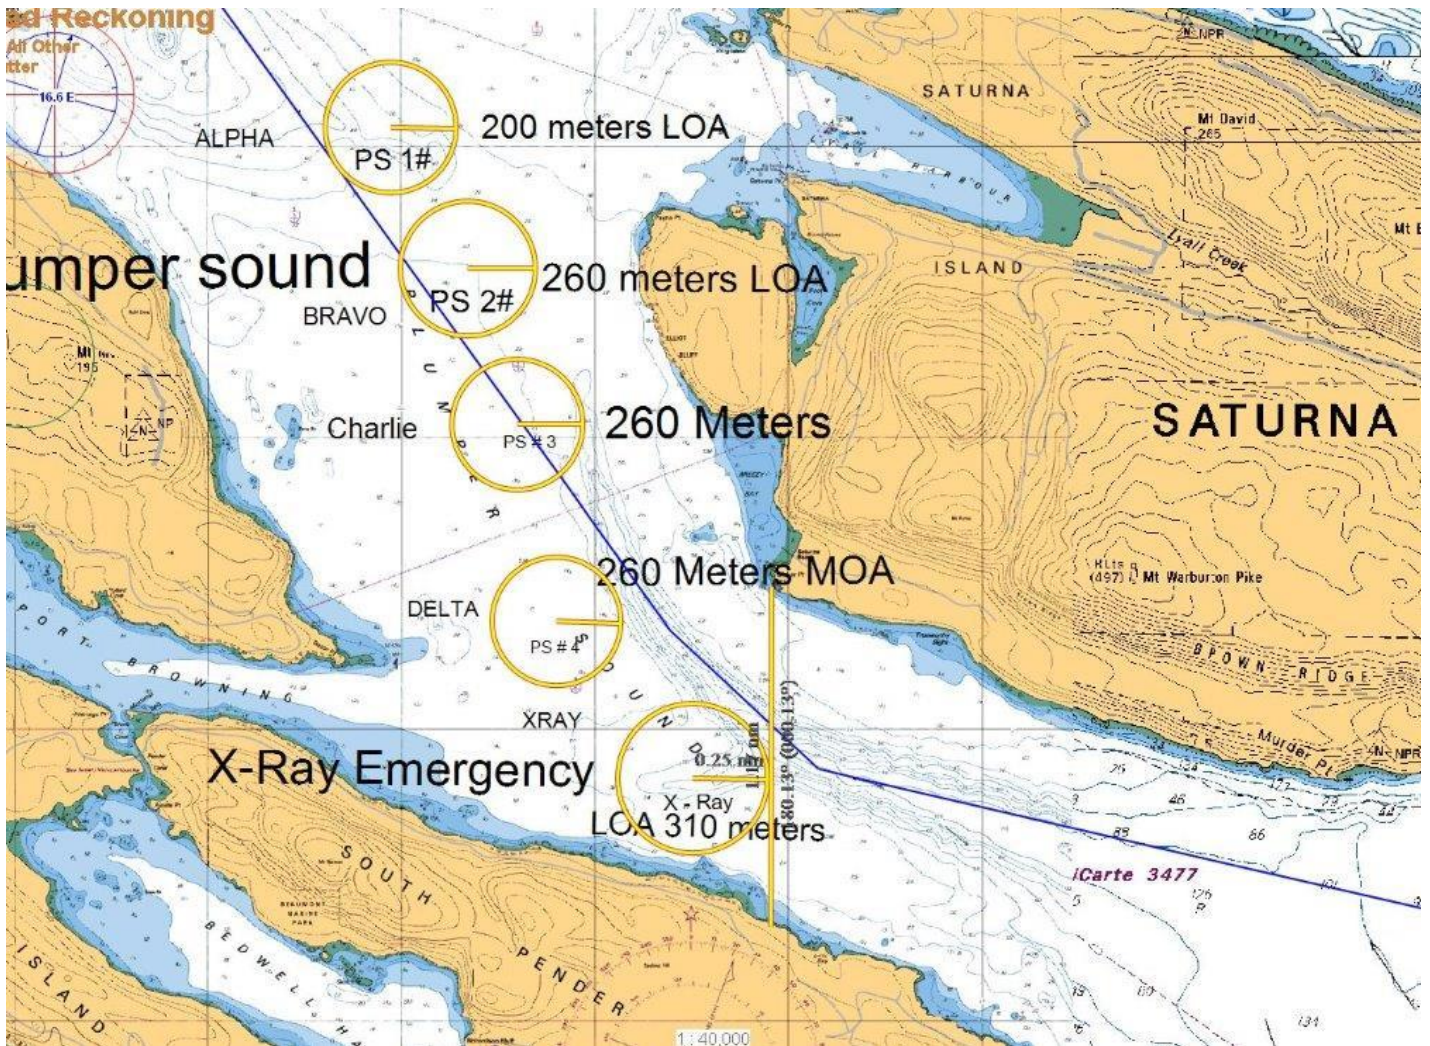

The number of anchorages in Ladysmith has been reduced to six (from seven) and the positions have been shifted.

The updated names and coordinates of the new anchorage positions in these three areas are as indicated in the respective diagrams and tables in the following pages.

Unchanged anchorage locations in Houston Pass & Trincomali Channel are indicated on page 5.
