Please see Appendix A Guidelines for Billing section for additional information.

 - Community Information Meetings
 - Public Hearings
 - Advisory Commission Meetings
 - Interagency meetings
2. Complete and submit all draft minutes, notes, reports, recommendations, and invoice for services to the Islands Trust within 7 calendar days following the meeting.
3. When draft minutes are submitted, submit any recordings to the appropriate Islands Trust office, for retention by Islands Trust and subsequent destruction after one year from the date of the meeting. Where the minute taker retains a copy of the audio recording, in addition to that forwarded to the Islands Trust office, the minute taker will destroy his or her copy once the minutes have been adopted. The exception to this is where Islands Trust assumes the responsibility of audio recording of meetings.
4. Return signed originals of all approved minutes with proper certifications to the Islands Trust within 7 calendar days following receipt.
5. Distribute notices to residents and provide signed delivery confirmation pursuant to statutory requirements of the applicable Local Trust Committee.
6. If requested by Islands Trust staff, act as Secretary to an Advisory Planning Commission or as a minute taker to the Board of Variance to undertake duties as provided for in the relevant Bylaw.

It is also the responsibility of the minute taker to ask, while at the meeting, for clarification on the spelling of people's names, the wording of resolutions, and any other information that needs to be recorded in the minutes. The minute takers can also contact any Islands Trust staff who attended the meeting to help clarify what exactly occurred.

b) Professionalism

Act in a professional manner while present at meetings or hearings where under contract to record Islands Trust business. This includes keeping a neutral facial expression and body language and refraining from speaking during the meeting unless requested by an Islands Trust representative or to clarify information to be recorded in the minutes. Otherwise refrain from involvement in agenda evaluation, decision making, and interaction among meeting attendees.

c) Performance Expectations

Islands Trust endeavours to support minute takers with appropriate training and orientation as well as on-going support so that high quality minutes are produced. Newly appointed minute takers will be required to attend an orientation and training session either in person, by telephone or electronically. Minute takers may also be required to undertake supplemental training at the request of Island Trust. Minute takers will be reimbursed for related time and travel expenditures.

2. Guidelines for billing

The hours to be billed to Islands Trust would be the length of time to attend the meeting, plus the actual time taken to prepare the minutes. Invoices shall be submitted on the template provided by Islands Trust as outlined in Part B section (e).

Where the contractor chooses to sign up for the Worksafe BC Personal Optional Protection Insurance, as outlined in Part D, they will be reimbursed upon submission of an invoice with the original Worksafe BC receipt attached.
