The next regular meeting of the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. on September 12, 2024 at the Legion Meaden Hall, 120 Blain Road, Salt Spring Island.

19. ADJOURNMENT

Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee Minutes of Regular Meeting

Date: Thursday, June 6, 2024

Location: Meaden Hall
120 Blain Road, Salt Spring Island

Members Present: Timothy Peterson, Chair
Jamie Harris, Local Trustee
Laura Patrick, Local Trustee

Staff Present: Jason Youmans, Island Planner
Rob Pingle, Legislative Clerk
Warren Dingman, Bylaw Compliance and Enforcement Manager
Lisa Millard, Recorder

Others Present: There were approximately seven (7) members of the public in attendance.

1. CALL TO ORDER

Chair Peterson called the meeting to order at 9:30 a.m. He introduced himself, the Trustees, and staff and acknowledged that the Local Trust Committee is meeting in the traditional territory of the Coast Salish First Nations.

2. APPROVAL OF AGENDA

The following additions and changes to the agenda were presented for consideration:

15.2 Capital Regional District (CRD) Meeting Agenda

By general consent the agenda was approved as amended.

3. TOWN HALL AND QUESTIONS

A member of the public made the following comments:

- They represent the groups Positively Forward and Keep Salt Spring Sustainable;
- These groups would like to be officially included among those that will providing consultation as part of the Complete Communities and Official Community Plan Review projects;
- These groups have been active in their support of affordable housing which is the main focus of both projects; and
- They have requested, in writing and in person, to be included in the engagement process.

A member of the public made the following comments

- They live on North Pender Island and have clients on Salt Spring Island;

- They have looked at the Bylaw Enforcement Policy staff report which does not recognize that many residents live in recreational vehicles (RVs), trailers, and tiny homes nor does it deal with people living in this form of housing in a fair way;
- A lot of people are going to need to spend money to ensure that their septic discharge will be considered acceptable and they need assurance that if they do then the policy doesn't change at a later time;
- The bylaw enforcement process does not allow people to go in front of a judge to argue their case even though the consequence can be the loss of their home; and
- They would like staff to take into account the community concerns and to talk to people that might have solutions or suggestions.

A member of the public made the following comments and also submitted a document titled Responsible Wastewater Systems for Mobile Housing:

- They run a company specializing in ecological construction;
- They have built many tiny homes and are now servicing residents living in various forms of housing;
- As an appointee on the Housing Action Taskforce they looked at the implications of tiny home legalization including health and environmental impacts;
- The plumbing of a tiny home or an RV is not that different than the plumbing of a house and the main difference is the connection;
- A larger pipe going in to a smaller pipe is not a reliable system due to the seal;
- A better system uses standard wastewater plumbing pipe with a no leak fitting; and
- People need to live in alternative housing and should be allowed to do that in a responsible way.

A member of the public made the following comments:

- They are a member of the group Transition Salt Spring;
- They submitted a letter to the Local Trust Committee with 9 (nine) recommendations with respect to the terms of reference and scope of the Official Community Plan (OCP) – Land Use Bylaw (LUB) Update project;
- The letter has been sent to a number of community groups in order to get a consensus position on the project;
- There is an opportunity to create a review of the OCP-LUB using a holistic and systemic approach;
- They would like to advance options for housing equity, climate change mitigation, eco system integrity, and first nations reconciliation;
- Housing is not in opposition to the environment and there is a much lower footprint for a smaller home built correctly compared to a home that is made of concrete and built on a clear cut mountainside; and
- They invite the Local Trust Committee to reach out to Transition Salt Spring, and other groups, to ensure the OCP and LUB revisions meets the needs that the community is facing.

4. DELEGATIONS - NONE

5. TRUSTEE REPORTS

Trustee Harris reported the following:

- He does not see the 50TH Anniversary of Islands Trust as a celebratory time and he hopes that things can turn around on Salt Spring Island;

- There is an ongoing problem of alcoholics and drug addicts in Centennial Park with loose dogs running around which is against regional park policy;
- Salt Spring Island's government is not capable of dealing with the situation, and
- There is a Trust Council meeting being held on Salt Spring Island soon and he urges residents everyone to attend the town hall session of the meeting.

Trustee Patrick reported the following:

- She offered her condolences on the passing of Nina Raginsky, a resident who cherished the nature on the island, embraced First Nations reconciliation, and cared deeply about fellow islanders and she noted appreciation for being nominated to the Local Trust Committee by Ms. Ragnisky;
- She asked that Trustee Harris correct the information he posted on a Facebook video in regard to her request for a decision related to standards of conduct review panel, indicated that her recommendation was for the Executive Committee to request staff to review Trust Council Policy 2.1.2 Standards of Conduct and recommend revisions to implement an informal review process and enhance process fairness following best practices, and stated that her motivation to improve conduct was not related to Trustee Harris;
- She attended the Cortes Island Housing Forum which discussed community land trusts, the Local Community Commission's housing meeting, a Ferry Advisory Committee meeting, the Local Trust Committee meeting with the Agricultural Alliance and the Agricultural Advisory Planning Commission, and a meeting with the Minister of Tourism, Arts, Culture and Sport;
- She is active with the Islands Trust CAO Hiring Committee, attended the Financial Planning Committee meeting, and participated in the committee of the whole meeting which discussed the Islands Trust draft policy statement; and
- She acknowledged the 50th Anniversary of Islands Trust and read excerpts from a Select Committee report written in 1973 on their findings related to the establishment of the Islands Trust.

6. CHAIR'S REPORT

Chair Peterson reported the following:

- He attended the Trust Programs Committee meeting and viewed a series of stewardship webinars on groundwater conservation, living with fire risk, and invasive plant removal;
- He attended the meeting with the Agricultural Alliance and the Agricultural Advisory Planning Commission;
- He is preparing for a meeting with the Capital Regional District;
- He attended the committee of the whole meeting to discuss the Islands Trust draft policy statement and noted that there will be an extended time of community engagement regarding the statement;
- He attended a sub committee of the Regional Planning Committee to work on the corporate planning process; and
- He attended an Executive Committee meeting.

7. CRD DIRECTOR'S REPORT

CRD Director Gary Holman reported the following:

- He will set up an email conversation between Trustee Harris, the RCMP, and CRD Bylaw Enforcement to discuss issues raised by Trustee Harris about Centennial Park;

- He noted that the RCMP have reported receiving fewer complaints about activities in Centennial Park and that a dog can only be impounded if it is dangerous;
- In response to the perception that only huge homes are being built on Salt Spring Island he requested building permit data which shows that 75% of the homes being built are dwellings 2500 square feet or less;
- The Local Community Commission (LCC) held a housing workshop last week which was well attended and feedback will be used as a basis for clarifying the role of the LCC in terms of affordable housing;
- Census data shows there are 1500 homes on Salt Spring with one occupant and the CRD is looking at ways in which they might incentivize people to share their homes;
- The Rural Housing program will be piloted in the southern Gulf Islands and Salt Spring Island and look at creating incentives to encourage the building of secondary suites;
- He attended the meeting with the Tourism Minister who expressed enthusiasm about the Salish Trail;
- The CRD continues to focus on transportation within Ganges;
- The Ministry of Transportation and Infrastructure will be doing some repaving and work around Blackburn bridge which will cause summer traffic disruptions; and
- The proponent for the development site at the former Fulford Inn had requested inclusion in the Fulford Water District, the Commission did not reject the request but asked the proponent to work with Islands Trust to better define the build out within the water district, and the proponent then stated that they would not be pursuing inclusion in the water district.

14. LOCAL TRUST COMMITTEE PROJECTS

14.1 Official Community Plan - Land Use Bylaw Update Project

The Planner provided a project update and highlighted the following:

- Consideration of amending the project terms of reference to reflect that the Local Trust Committee is not yet in the position of co-planning the project with First Nations as the parties are only in the early stages of establishing engagement protocols; and
- Budget has been allocated for a consultant to provide community engagement support for the project and the draft scope of services should be established;

Discussion ensued. Trustee Patrick expressed concern that budget has not been provided to successfully complete the project and that there is a need for significant project management due to a lack of internal resources.

Trustee Harris noted his opposition to the project and stated that there is a severe housing crisis on Salt Spring Island and that he opposes spending time on anything otherwise.

That the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee request staff to have Sue Hallet review the recommended amendments to Official Community Plan – Land Use Bylaw Update Project Terms of Reference.

15. NEW BUSINESS

15.1 Bylaw Enforcement Policy

The Bylaw Compliance and Enforcement Manager summarized the report and made the following comments:

- He proposed that a policy document directing bylaw staff on specific issues not addressed within the Trust Council policies be created for each Local Trust Committee (LTC);
- Bylaw staff currently receive direction through the Trust Council policies and the LTC standing resolutions;
- The policy document will allow the LTC to determine what the policies are and how bylaw staff are to enforce them;
- The policies would include items such as notice of site inspections, time to comply, frivolous complaints, and when to close a file; and
- The report provides an overview of open bylaw enforcement files on Salt Spring of which the majority can be closed should the LTC direct staff to close files for non-permitted dwellings where there are no concerns about health and safety and inadequate septic systems.

Discussion ensued and Trustees made the following observations:

- In order to restore public confidence the LTC needs to look at the policy document more closely so they can decide how to clarify their priorities and have community discussion to receive feedback on what this should look like;
- The focus should be placed on inadequate septic disposal rather than non conforming dwellings;
- The LTC does not want to enforce on illegal dwellings;
- More clarity around terms such as inadequate would be helpful; and
- A standard needs to be applied to determine inadequate from adequate systems.

The Bylaw Compliance and Enforcement Manager noted the following:

- The Vancouver Island Health Authority sets the standard for waste water disposal;
- The infraction in the Land Use Bylaw is defined as disposal of waste on land;
- It is adequate if someone is pumping out a holding tank or using an outhouse; and
- Based on the comments and concerns made by the Trustees he will provide more specific information, definitions, and further details at a future LTC meeting.

SS-2024-063

It was MOVED and SECONDED

that the Salt Spring Local Trust Committee direct staff to close files for non-permitted dwellings where there is no evidence of disposal of waste on land.

1. CALL TO ORDER

Chair Peterson called the meeting to order at 3:00 p.m. and acknowledged that the meeting is held in the territory of Coast Salish First Nations.

2. APPROVAL OF AGENDA

By general consent, the agenda was adopted as presented.

3. INTRODUCTIONS

Chair Peterson introduced Islands Trust Trustees and Staff and welcomed Earl Rook, Capital Regional District Salt Spring Island Local Community Commission Chair who introduced the Capital Regional District attendees.

4. PROTOCOL AGREEMENTS

Chair Peterson made the following comments about the Protocol Agreement;

- It was implemented to guide relationships between the parties and allows for the scheduling of regular meetings of the Regional Directors, Local Trust Committees, and Staff to review the agreement and letters of understanding;
- It came into existence before the Local Community Commission was established;
- The agreements in place include the Islands Trust Council / Capital Regional District (CRD) Protocol Bylaw, an agreement regarding the provision of parkland between the Salt Spring Local Trust Committee (LTC) and the Salt Spring Parks and Recreation Commission which is now the Local Community Commission, and a letter of understanding regarding the withholding of building permits; and
- The focus of this meeting is the Protocol Agreement between the Islands Trust and the CRD.

Earl Rook pointed out the following issues:

- The parties to the agreement are six LTCs and the CRD Board;
- It does not acknowledge the existence of the Local Community Commission (LCC) which has administrative authority over eleven services and advisory authority over another three;
- There are six LTC's listed as parties to the Agreement and the LCC is only relevant to Salt Spring Island;
- The LCC does not have the same status of the Advisory Commissions that it replaced;
- The document needs to be updated to reflect these changes; and
- There is concern about renewing an agreement that does not recognize the existence of an agency that has an administrative authority over the locally delivered island wide services that the CRD provides.

In response to the concerns of the LCC the following was noted:

- There may be a way to recognize the existence of the LCC without necessarily creating separate agreements for the Southern Gulf Islands and Salt Spring Island; and
- There is a Protocol Agreement between Salt Spring Island and the Parks and Recreation Commission, which is focussed on parkland, and there is a possibility it could be rewritten to be between the Salt Spring Island LTC and the LCC.

Discussion ensued about the five principals of the Protocol Agreement and the following comments were made:

- Both parties need to continue to respect the jurisdiction and areas of authority of the other party and one does not take precedence over the other;
- The parties are limited to some extent by decisions the other has made; and
- The principle of a commitment to promoting a spirit of partnership remains valid.

Discussion ensued regarding the co-operation section of the Protocol Agreement and the following comments were noted:

- It is unclear what servicing arrangements the parties are to agree to jointly coordinate;

- The parties have ongoing cooperation regarding bylaw enforcement and parks planning and have worked together on renewing the climate action plan, water use, and affordable housing;
- Renewing the agreement might limit the areas in which the parties can cooperate due to the language contained within;
- The parties can agree to discuss any topic and the existing categories are broad; and
- The parties can revisit the Protocol Agreement as required and list important topics.

Discussion ensued regarding the Conditions section of the Protocol Agreement and the following comments were noted:

- The language needs to be updated to reflect the existence of the LCC;
- If more than minor edits are required to recognize the LCC then the work might have to be directed to Staff;
- Staff indicated that updating the agreement would be a similar to the development of a bylaw and there would be a requirement for ministerial approval;
- Letters of agreement can not be executed in the absence of a protocol agreement;

5. NOTIFICATION AND CONSULTATION ON LEGISLATIVE INITIATIVE

- It is important for an LTC to determine if a referral is appropriate to send to the CRD as the CRD does not want to receive referrals for all applications;
- When bylaw changes are being contemplated reporting should be provided to the other parties;
- There is a need for more formal discussion between the LTC and the LCC regarding mutual issues such as watershed protection, harbour management, and Ganges revitalization as these issues overlap with some areas of authority of the LCC;
- When one party is advocating to a higher level of government in a way that would have a direct impact on the other parties, or about a topic of shared interest, then the other parties should be informed.

6. COMMUNICATIONS

- The principles listed around communications are still relevant;
- The parties need to schedule regular quarterly meetings;
- There is a need for a letter of agreement between the LTC and LCC to address how they can work together.

7. COMMUNITY PLANNING, SERVICE ARRANGEMENTS, ADMINISTRATIVE ARRANGEMENTS, AND REGIONAL GROWTH

a) Identify and prioritize issues

All parties identified and prioritized housing as the top economic sustainability issue.

Other issues and areas of collaboration that were identified included the following:

- Short term vacation rentals;
- The Active Transportation plan;
- The Ganges revitalization plan;
- Parks and trails;
- Interagency discussions on the Salish Trail;
- Wastewater treatment;
- Emergency Planning;

- Watershed protection;
- Viability and support of agriculture;
- Alignment of agriculture bylaws;
- Bylaw enforcement collaboration;
- Ensure overlapping bylaws are not in conflict;
- Climate change; and
- Reconciliation;

5. NEXT STEPS DISCUSSION REGARDING JOINT PUBLIC MEETING AND OR REGULAR MEETINGS

- The LCC would like to host the next meeting in September 2024;
- The parties agree to meet quarterly;
- The LTC and LCC agree to meet about sub-regional issues that are relevant to either party;
- Chair Peterson and Chair Rook agree to discuss draft changes to the Protocol Agreement.

6. ADJOURNMENT

By general consent the meeting adjourned at 5:08 p.m.

Hi Chris and Donna, I sure hope the CRD can't make this decision on their own.
It will be nice to find this out. This seems to me to be another reason added to the many other reasons we need to have a municipal government here on SSI with a mayor and six councilors democratically voted in by Salt Spring Islanders voting for Salt Spring Islanders.

Hello Trustees,

First off thank you for hosting yesterdays meeting. It was nice to hear that agriculture is still a priority to the IT.

Going forward I think a meeting similar to yesterday but including the CRD would be beneficial.

Of course as soon as the meeting ended I had a question.

We (a number of poultry club members) have been told by the chief CRD bylaw officer "the CRD is seeking to redefine what constitutes an "Agricultural Area", restricting the definition to only include land in the ALR (Agricultural Land Reserve)"

Who decides this? Can the CRD change the meaning or application of a Islands Trust bylaw?

Thank you for your time

Sign if you believe the CRD does not have the right to strip property owners on Rurally Zoned land, of their rights to own roosters. Roosters are agriculture and permitted per Islands Trust zoning, and should be exempt from local noise by-laws.

Subject: FULL - THROATED SUPPORT.

Ms. Patrick.

I note the Driftwood report of your “FULL-THROATED” support for Agriculture.

You are aware of the challenges to Agriculture precipitated by Islands Trust Planning and Islands Trust Bylaw Enforcement.

Ms. Caproff (Planner) under the supervision of Mr. Hutton has proliferated the concept that if a farming property is not in the ALR the Islands Trust bylaw exemptions for agriculture do not apply to the property.

Mr. Dingman claims he needs to see farmgate receipts for a property to accept the BC Assessment farm status of the property.

He invents and processes bylaw violations for the property based on non-existent complaints about the property.

I sat in the court room when the judge reprimanded 5 CRD Bylaw Officials present for ticketing Ms. Roslinsky for the claimed Noise Nuisance of her Rooster.

The Manager of CRD By Law Enforcement has stated that the CRD position is that if a property is not in the Agricultural Land Reserve, it is not a FARM.

Mr. Dingman spent the day of the recent "Rooster Trial" in court in familiar contact with the CRD Bylaw Enforcement manager.

The apparent common belief of the CRD and Islands Trust that "if a property is not in the Agricultural Land Reserve" it is not a farm becomes more apparent.

The two attached letters to the Islands Trust from the BC Ministry of Agriculture clarify the rights of farm property owners.

You have received copies of documentation where the Islands Trust has spent time and tax dollars manipulating bylaw interpretation in suppression of farm rights and have done nothing.

The attached Driftwood representation of your good intentions appears contradictory.

Sincerely.

BRIAN MILNE

Dear David:

Re: Comprehensive Update to the Islands Trust Policy Statement

Thank you for providing the opportunity for the Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Fisheries (Ministry) staff to comment on the comprehensive update to the Islands Trust Policy Statement. The Ministry appreciates the work that Islands Trust staff have invested in this project and from an agricultural perspective, Ministry staff offer the following comments:

4.3 Forest Stewardship Policies

Policies 4.3.3, 4.3.5 & 4.3.9: It is evident that Islands Trust is deeply committed to the stewardship of forest ecosystems within the Trust Area. However, Ministry staff note that these policies may have an adverse impact on agriculture. Land clearing (i.e. removing trees) is often a necessary farm practice for farmers to conduct agriculture. Whether farmers land clear an entire property or simply remove a small number of trees, land clearing is often necessary to commence an agricultural operation or to expand an existing one.

Further, section 6 of the Agricultural Land Reserve (ALR) Use Regulation, via the definition of "farm operation" in the Farm Practices Protection (Right to Farm) Act, identifies land clearing as a Farm Use that may not be prohibited by a local government if the work is required for Farm Use.

Ministry staff encourage Islands Trust to amend sections 4.3.3, 4.3.5 and 4.3.9 to reflect the ability of a farmer to clear their land for agricultural purposes. Amended wording for section 4.3.3., for example, could include the following addition in bold font:

It is Trust Council's policy that forest harvesting in the Trust Area, with the exception of properties in the ALR, should be limited, small-scale, sustainable, regenerative, supportive of climate action, respectful of Indigenous harvesting areas, and protective of the environmental integrity of the Trust Area.

4.4. Agricultural Land Stewardship Policies

Policies 4.4.2 & 4.4.3: Despite the holistic approach, these policies present some challenges from an agricultural perspective. Ideally, all agricultural activity throughout B.C., not only in the Trust Area, would be conducted using the guiding principles listed in policy 4.4.2. However, in reality agriculture is often conducted in a very different manner. For example, many farmers in B.C. spray pesticides on their crops to optimize crop yield and use gas/diesel powered machinery as part of their agricultural operation. These practices may not be viewed by some people as 'sustainable' or 'supportive of local climate action' but may be necessary for an individual agriculture operation.

Without providing additional clarification, this section is also somewhat ambiguous and could create confusion. For example, by identifying that all agricultural activity should be 'small-scale', it is ambiguous whether large-scale commercial farming operations would be supported. As written, these policies appear to stigmatize large-scale farmers who use conventional farm practices that may not be viewed by some people as 'sustainable'. Ministry staff recommend supporting farming unilaterally.

Overall, this section appears to strive for a vision of agriculture that does not reflect the current realities of the agricultural sector in B.C.

Policy 4.4.6: With respect to the following policy:

that farming in the Agricultural Land Reserve in the Trust Area does not adversely impact Indigenous food security and traditional harvesting practices, cultural heritage, or the environmental integrity of protected area networks in the Trust Area;

While Ministry staff recognize the importance of supporting First Nations food interests and traditional harvesting practices, staff are concerned that the above policy is not specific and therefore, applies to both Crown and privately owned land, including ALR land. As such, it appears to suggest that the Trust Council desires to pursue additional limitations/conditions on how farmers are able to farm their privately owned property.

As written, this statement implies that not only should private landowners avoid agricultural practices that adversely impact 'Indigenous food security and traditional harvesting practices', but simultaneously should farm their property without impacting the ability for First Nations to somehow conduct their traditional harvesting practices on that property. Ultimately, the Ministry is concerned with the ambiguous nature and intent of this policy.

With respect to the following policy:

that support is given to small-scale sustainable farmers to reduce greenhouse gas emissions emanating from agriculture and adapt to climate variability in the Trust Area;

This policy appears to exclude large-scale farmers who use conventional farm practices and who may equally benefit from support to reduce greenhouse gas emissions and adapt to climate variability in the Trust Area. There is no description of what differentiates "small-scale" from "medium-scale" and "large-scale". This becomes a purely subjective matter.

4.5 Soil and Mineral Stewardship Policies

Policies 4.5.1 & 4.5.5: Given the critical role that soils often play in contributing to successful agricultural operations, Ministry staff are pleased to see the addition of these two policies.

4.6 Coastal and Marine Stewardship Policies

Policy 4.6.2: Similar to policy 4.4.2 above, Ministry staff are similarly concerned with the challenges that this policy appears to impose on the aquaculture industry.

6.2 Housing Policies

Policy 6.2.6: In an effort to minimize the impact of residential development/housing on agricultural lands, Ministry staff suggest adding the below noted wording in bold font:

Local trust committees and island municipalities shall, in their official community plans and regulatory bylaws, identify appropriate floor area and lot coverage limits for residential development in their planning area, in order to effectively minimize greenhouse gas emissions, cumulative effects, biodiversity loss, climate vulnerability, impacts on agricultural land and destruction of Indigenous cultural heritage.

Ministry staff would welcome the opportunity to discuss our comments further and are available to provide additional input and support.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide comments from an agricultural perspective with respect to the Islands Trust Policy Statement.

Dear Jason Youmans:

Re: Salt Spring Island local Trust Committee Bylaw 487

Thank you for the referral of Bylaw 487 to amend the Salt Spring Island Land Use Bylaw, 1999. It is my understanding that the draft amendment proposes to establish set back standards from water bodies for properties zoned RW1 and RW2 where agriculture, excluding intensive agriculture, is a permitted use under zoning.

Further, it is my understanding that 270 properties will be impacted by this change. I have concerns that given the large number of parcels that some of them may be currently engaged in agriculture. Only one property zoned RW1 or RW2 is in the ALR. I would encourage you to clearly identify that properties within the Agricultural Land Reserve are not included in this bylaw.

If the proposed zoning change is to be implemented under the Provincial Riparian Area Regulations, the RAR Act has specific exemptions for agriculture activities. There may be certain activities on some of these properties that could fall within the exempted activity.

1. The RAR DPA does not apply to the following:
 - a. Construction, alteration, addition, repair, demolition and maintenance of farm buildings; and
 - b. Clearing of land for agriculture.

The Farm Practices Protection Act provides local governments the ability to restrict agricultural activities in areas under their jurisdiction. However it does not preclude the Minister from enacting Provincial Bylaw Standards if deemed necessary. Currently there is a Ministers Bylaw Standard on the placement of farm buildings with respect to watercourses setbacks. This standard could potentially be applied in certain situations.

<http://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/industry/agriculture-seafood/agricultural-land-and-environment/strengthening-farming/local-government-bylaw-standards-and-farm-bylaws/agricultural-building-riparian-setbacks>

Currently properties zoned to allow for agriculture as a permitted use have been afforded the same rights and restrictions as those agricultural parcels in the ALR. This bylaw will create a different standard on 270 parcels. It may be worth investigating to find out how many of those parcels are actively engaged in agriculture and if any of the farming activities may be in contravention with the proposed setback provisions.

Thank you for the opportunity to review Bylaw 487. If you have any questions regarding my comments please contact me directly.

More regulations feared

But similar to how provincial building codes prescribe how zone-permitted buildings are constructed, the manner in which livestock is kept is not within the purview of the Islands Trust. Planner Chris Hutton explained during Thursday's meeting that while the land use powers the Trust exercises are significant, they are not the only authority on Salt Spring.

"We don't really have a direct authority over what regulations the [Capital] Regional District puts in place," said Hutton. "However, they do not have [our] ability to create land use regulations. We're essentially parallel entities; we regulate in the same space, but in different ways."

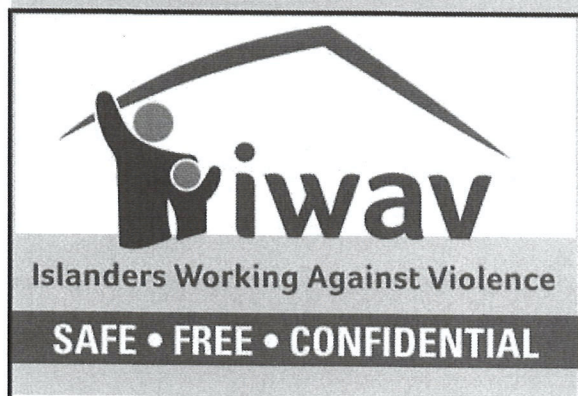

Trustees were asked whether they could add stipulations or amendments in their bylaws — "so livestock noise is not something you can complain about," suggested small-flock poultry grower Donna Saffel. LTC members seemed to agree that would be outside their authority. But with full-throated support for agriculture on Salt Spring broadly, trustee Laura Patrick said the LTC was planning a joint meeting with CRD officials in the near future — and suggested that the issue should be part of that meeting's agenda.

"We want to make sure that agriculture is maintained, grows [and] thrives," said Patrick. "We want to enshrine that use, because to me this is Salt Spring — this is what it is, and what's so important to me is the agricultural base of our island."

Trustee Jamie Harris returned to his well of criticism for the Islands Trust, suggesting the issue was yet another that might be solved by the island becoming a municipality, and worried trustees stepping in might turn into more restrictions, not fewer.

"We clearly don't want to have more regulation and say OK, you can't do that," said Harris. "Maybe it's up to people that are farming to sort of use their better judgment as far as getting along with your neighbours goes."

The latest court appearance for McNichol on the bylaw infractions was set for Monday, June 3; CRD officials have indicated they would not be commenting on the issues surrounding the case until court proceedings concluded.

Chris Hutton, Regional Planning Manager

SUBJECT: Discharge of Housing Agreement
Applicant: Lawson Lundell LLP (William L. Roberts)
Location: 584 Rainbow Road (PID: 015-854-698)

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee direct Staff to prepare a draft bylaw to repeal Housing Agreement Bylaw No. 447, 2010, which authorizes a housing agreement the property at 584 Rainbow Road (PID: 015-854-698).

PURPOSE

The purpose of this report is to provide the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee (SS LTC) with information concerning an updated request from Vancouver City Savings Credit Union, in regards to 584 Rainbow Road (the subject property). The request relates to the repeal of both a housing agreement for a 10-unit affordable housing unit development (Bylaw. 447), and the discharge of all associated land title charges (i.e. covenant) on the subject property. While the use for affordable housing is protected by the property zoning, the housing agreement and related charges on the property title has deterred future purchasers, according to the lenders legal representation (Lawson Lundell).

BACKGROUND

This request regarding discharge of the housing agreement notice on title for 584 Rainbow Road was brought forward to LTC at the November 16, 2023 Regular Meeting. The staff report dated November 16, 2023, can be viewed to provide further context regarding the housing agreement and related rezoning process.

At the November 2023 meeting, the SSI LTC carried the following resolutions:

SS-2023-144

It was MOVED and SECONDED,

That the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee discharge the notice of housing agreement from the property at 584 Rainbow Road, (PID 015-854-698) with legal description as Lot A, Section 2, Range 1 East, North Salt Spring Island, Cowichan District, Plan 49990.

CARRIED

The property at 584 Rainbow Road, spanning 3.14 ha (7.76 ac) and zoned Rural (R), was up-zoned in 2008 for a 10-unit affordable housing development. The SS LTC initially approved 14 units, later reduced to 10 units, under Bylaw No. 441. Housing Agreement Bylaw No. 447 was adopted on September 22, 2010, but the development did not progress, and the property is now in foreclosure.

Section 43 of Bylaw No. 447 states the housing agreement is not binding on mortgagees during foreclosure if the court approves a sale to an arm's length bona fide purchaser. Vancouver City Savings Credit Union, the lender, has requested the discharge of the housing agreement, supported by a BC Supreme Court Order for Conduct of Sale. Should a sale go through, the LTC would be required to abandon the Housing Agreement Bylaw No. 447, requiring a repealing bylaw to initiate the process.

Staff had previously advised LTC that the cancellation of the Housing Agreement and discharge of the notice in accordance with section 43 of the Housing Agreement does not require the Local Trust Committee to repeal or otherwise take any action with regard to Bylaw No. 447. Staff have since discovered that the active housing agreement bylaw remains active until such a time that a repealing bylaw is adopted. Since the notice on title has been discharged, the current bylaw may not be enforceable in its current state.

Issues and Opportunities

Affordable Housing Protected Zoning Use

The SS LUB allows for one single-family dwelling and up to 10 affordable units, defined as units secured by a housing agreement. Without an agreement in place, the uses permitted reverts to that of a typical Rural Zone. To ensure new developments meet affordable housing criteria, SS LTC should negotiate a new housing agreement with the purchaser once the sale has commenced, failing which only one single-family dwelling would be permitted. Should the future purchaser indicate interest in providing affordable housing, a new housing agreement bylaw would be brought forward to the LTC.

Existing Structures

While the affordable housing definition requires a housing agreement bylaw in place, removal of such agreement would create a non-conformity of any additional dwelling structures onsite (outside of the principal dwelling and seasonal cottage). As the court has ordered a conduct of sale, and the notice on title has already been discharged, it is recommended that LTC continue with the repeal process.

Rationale for Recommendation

Given the foreclosure and the court's approval of the sale, repealing Bylaw No. 447 is necessary to clear the existing encumbrance and facilitate future compliance with affordable housing objectives through a new agreement with the purchaser.

ALTERNATIVES

- 1. That the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee deny the preparation of a repealing housing agreement bylaw from the property at 584 Rainbow Road, (PID 015-854-698) with legal description as LOT A, SECTION 2, RANGE 1 EAST, NORTH SALT SPRING ISLAND, COWICHAN DISTRICT, PLAN 49990.

NEXT STEPS

The next steps involve directing staff to prepare a bylaw to repeal Bylaw No. 447 and working with the future purchaser to establish a new housing agreement if they wish to develop more than one single-family dwelling.

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee approve issuance of Development Variance Permit application PLDVP20240030.

REPORT SUMMARY

The purpose of this report is to consider a Development Variance Permit (DVP) for the proposed siting of a new sewage disposal field within the required 30 metre setback of the natural boundary of the sea. The variance would relax the setback to 10.0 metres to permit the siting of the new sewage disposal field.

BACKGROUND

The specific variance is to the natural boundary setback in the Salt Spring Island Land Use Bylaw No. 355, 1999 (LUB).

- Subsection 4.5.1 (1) which states that no sewage disposal field or septage pit may be located within 30 m of the natural boundary of the sea is varied to permit the construction of a sewage disposal field within 10.0 metres of the natural boundary of the sea.

The 0.19 ha (0.48 ac) subject property is an undeveloped lot zoned Rural – R. The property has a well located in the north-east corner of the lot which limits the available sewage disposal field siting. The applicant is seeking a variance to reach compliance with the Salt Spring Island LUB and to maintain compliance with the Sewerage System Regulation requiring that a sewerage system must not be constructed less than 30 metres from a well. The applicant is seeking a variance for the whole area outside of the 30 metre well setback and a 10 metre buffer from the natural boundary of the sea. Three options for the specific sewerage system location are identified on the site plan shown in Figure 3.

A copy of the notice and proposed permit SSDVP20240030 are attached as Attachments 4 and 5. Staff conducted a site visit on June 13, 2024. Staff observed the proposed sewage disposal field siting and confirmed that the proposal appears adequate to facilitate development considering the siting constraints. Photos of the property are included as Attachment 2.

Policy/Regulatory

Section 498 of the Local Government Act enables the Local Trust Committee to approve a DVP in order to vary a siting regulation in the LUB. A DVP may not be used to vary density or land use. In this case, a variance to siting regulations is being sought.

Official Community Plan (OCP)

The property is designated Rural Neighbourhoods (RL) in the Salt Spring Island OCP. The property is located within Development Permit Area (DPA) 3 – Shoreline, and the proposed construction is partially within the DPA. The Shoreline DPA on-land portion is a 10 metre buffer from the natural boundary of the sea. The applicant has identified a different natural boundary through a 2022 professional survey than the boundary to which the DPA would correspond.

The applicant has confirmed that there will be no placing of fill or removal of trees with a trunk diameter greater than 20 cm (measured 1.5 m above the ground) or the removal of other vegetation that results in the exposure of a total area of bare soil more than 9m² in area within 10 m of the natural boundary of the sea. None of the remaining actions outlined in section E.3.1.2 of the Salt Spring Island OCP would be completed for the construction of a new sewage disposal field. The project as described is exempt from requiring a development permit. Any future works proposed within the DPA would need to be reviewed by Islands Trust staff to determine if a development permit is required.

Land Use Bylaw (LUB)

The property is zoned Rural – R in the LUB. The property is currently undeveloped and is permitted to have one single family dwelling and one secondary suite. For the purposes of this application it is subject to zoning requirements in section 4.5.1(1) of the Salt Spring Island LUB No. 355:

4.5.1 No sewage disposal field or septage pit may be located within:

(1) 30 m of the natural boundary of the sea;

Issues and Opportunities

Rationale for Variance

The applicant's rationale for the variance is included in a letter as Attachment 3 and summarized below:

- The parcel is constrained for developable area due to natural boundary setbacks and provincial well setback for a sewage disposal field.
- Proposed siting would allow the sewage disposal field to meet the Sewerage System Regulation minimum 30 meter setback from a well.

Intent of the Regulations Being Varied

The overall purpose of the setback to the natural boundary of the sea regulation is to minimize impacts on adjacent properties and the public realm related to:

- Protecting marine, foreshore, and nearshore habitats;
- Protection of development from natural hazards, particularly with sea level rise and increased storm surges;
- Protecting water quality.

Potential Impacts of Granting the Variance

Granting a variance can potentially create an expectation in the community with regard to future applications. As variance consider the unique circumstances pertaining to a particular situation that may warrant the relaxation to a specific zoning regulation, each application should be evaluated on its own merits.

Circulation

In accordance with Section 499(3) of the Local Government Act and Section 8 of the Salt Spring Island Development Procedures Bylaw No. 304, statutory notice of the proposed variance was mailed to all owners and tenants of properties within 100 metres of the subject property's boundaries on Thursday, June 27.

At the time of writing no correspondence has been received. Staff will verbally indicate if any correspondence has been received subsequent to submission of this report at the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee meeting.

First Nations

The shoreline adjacent to the subject property has been identified as an area of archaeological potential. The applicant has reached out to the Archaeology Branch in anticipation of the application to confirm that a provincial heritage permit is not required unless archaeological materials are exposed and/or impacted during land altering activities.

The Islands Trust reviews all applications to ensure the preservation and protection of cultural heritage, archaeological sites, and ancestral places. As reviewed, the application is consistent with respect to LTC Standing Resolutions on reconciliation. Notwithstanding, to provide applicants with awareness regarding unknown archaeological areas, staff forwarded the Islands Trust Chance Find Protocol and the provincial Archaeological Branch guidelines on Heritage Act directly to the applicants with the initial application.

Rationale for Recommendation

- The 30 metre setback from the natural boundary of the sea greatly constrains suitable sewage dispersal areas on the property as no one site on the property would satisfy the Islands Trust and Sewerage System Regulation setbacks;
- Further development of the property cannot be completed without an approved setback for the sewage disposal field;
- The decision to vary the natural boundary setback was made following engineering and geotechnical assessment of the site which determined that due to the nature of the sedimentary rock and aquifer in the area a sewage disposal field would pose a risk to well contamination.

ALTERNATIVES

The LTC may consider the following alternatives to the staff recommendation:

1. Request further information

The LTC may request further information prior to making a decision. If selecting this alternative, the LTC should describe the specific information needed and the rationale for this request. Recommended wording for the resolution is as follows:

That the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee request that the applicant submit to the Islands Trust

2. Deny the application

The LTC may deny the application. Staff advise that the implications of this alternative are the application will be closed. If this alternative is selected the LTC should state the reasons for denial. Recommended wording for the resolution is as follows:

That the Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee deny issuance of PLDVP20240030.

Land Use Application (No. PLDVP20240030)
248 Welbury Dr (PID: 004-775-236), Salt Spring Island
On Behalf of: Robert Kenneth Taylor and Kristy Danielle Bullard ("Owners")

The addendum supplements the original Land Use Application documentation package, submitted on December 29, 2023. The addendum has been prepared in response to the following information requests:

- 01.01 Further rationale for the variance; and,
- 01.02 An update to the site plan, to indicate more specific effluent dispersal locations.

Information Request Response 001

01.01-Response

As illustrated in the attached updated site plan, the parcel is constrained for developable area, owing to the setbacks to the natural boundary of the sea (15m for structures and 30m for disposal fields)¹ and the setbacks to a drinking water well (30m for disposal fields)². With these constraints, the Owners are restricted from development planning until an approved setback can be obtained for the disposal field (septic drainfield). With a confirmed and approved septic drainfield constraint, they would then be able to carry forward with their development planning.

No position on the parcel would satisfy both setbacks while retaining enough area for an effective drainfield solution. As the sewerage system designer, Aurora Professional Group ("APG") must weigh different risks concerning public health and the natural environment when pursuing reduced setback allowances.

The parcel is observed to have two soil types. At North, nearer the well and North Property Line ("NPL"), there is sparing spoil amongst boulders and bedrock. Moving South, the soil regime improves to a considerable depth (estimated to be 1m to 2+m) of permeable material (Loamy Sand to Sandy Loam), with improving thickness towards the crest of the bank and is much more suitable for soils-based treatment of effluent.

When contemplating a reduced drinking water well setback, we must consider the area's shallow groundwater and aquifer properties, their effect on effluent treatment, and their inferred risk to the well. Placing an effluent dispersal system closer to the drinking water well, especially above grade from the water well, poses a risk to well casing contamination. Furthermore, the aquifer in this area is known to be unconfined in fractured sedimentary rock and has a high vulnerability to contamination.³ With less depth of soils available for effluent renovation prior to infiltration into the bedrock, an additional risk of aquifer contamination would need to be accounted for and mitigated, likely with considerable expense, with mitigations reliant on equipment and owner maintenance.

When considering a reduced setback to the natural boundary of the sea, we first consider whether the re-defined setback is less than the BC Ministry of Health's Standard Practice Manual (V.3) ("SPM") standard setback, which is 15m.⁴ When less than 15m, we complete a "performance-based design" that considers any sensitive receptors at risk from a reduced setback. The subject parcel is not adjacent to any mapped fish⁵ or eelgrass habitat⁶, and the shoreline is mapped as low rock/boulder⁷. As such, the applicable water quality objectives for a performance-based design are categorized as "Ocean water, with swimming but no shellfish harvesting,"⁸ which requires performance compliance monitoring at least 3m from the "interface." In this case, compliance monitoring would be achieved with groundwater quality monitoring ports at least 3m from the shoreline crest, which we would denote as the "interface."

This water quality objective specifies maximum concentrations of coliform bacteria (400 CFU/100ml) and nitrogen (20 mg/L nitrate and 3.5 mg/L ammonia) measured at the interface as the performance objective for the system design and operation.

We note that, at least in regards to fecal coliforms, this water quality objective is less rigorous than SPM performance objectives, where SPM performance objectives were established with the rationale that 4m downslope of a drainfield, percolate (effluent undergoing soils-based treatment) is targeted to meet recreational water quality objectives⁹. As such, our approach would be to increase the performance requirements further. Our performance objective will be further constrained so that water quality objectives will be targeted at the vertical column of the dispersal field. In such a configuration, we would define a secondary performance target, where groundwater quality at the "interface" would be expected to have a water quality objective of <1 CFU/100 ml fecal coliform.

Secondary objective exist as well. SPM's primary water quality objectives are as follows: - Removal to a median fecal coliform bacteria density of less than 200 CFU/100mL, to meet the BC Approved Water Quality Guideline for recreation, primary contact. Removal to a median density of no less than 0.1 CFU/100mL, as a check to avoid specifying standards which would lead to overdesign of the dispersal system. Similar bacteria removal at the limiting layer for all dispersal techniques, loading rates and effluent types.

As part of the sewerage system design, certification, and maintenance manual, we would specify groundwater quality monitoring, first after a year of operation and then every three years after that.

We assess that in this configuration, risk to the natural environment would be mitigated, and risk to the drinking water well and aquifer would be remote.

01.02-Response

The attached updated drawing set now includes the proposed dispersal area.

For clarity, we can confirm the following:

- Our drawing relies upon the Present Natural Boundary ("PNB"), as denoted in the Polaris Land Survey, to establish setbacks from the "natural boundary of the sea." If a different property boundary is required for Land Use Application purposes, then our setbacks would be based upon those required by the Islands Trust.
- No fill would be placed within 10m of the natural boundary of the sea.
- No trees or vegetation would be stripped from the land within 10m of the natural boundary of the sea.

Description:

There has been no comprehensive review of the SS OCP since its adoption in 2008, nor any review of the Land Use Bylaw since 1999. The need to update these bylaws is a priority in response to policy, social, and technological change and to address contemporary community challenges the current document no longer serves. Those challenges include a lack of affordable housing and housing options, growth pressures, climate resiliency planning, infrastructure issues (such as the water moratorium), workforce stability challenges, transportation networks, and First Nations Reconciliation. The SS OCP update is intended to provide a framework to guide the development of a complete community by diversifying and increasing housing options at appropriate locations, advancing First Nations Reconciliation, reducing infrastructure costs, reducing greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, and improving walkability. The Land Use Bylaw update will improve land use planning regulation to ensure that regulations match the needs and expectations of land use in the community, in consideration of the OCP.
