GET INVOLVED

The Salt Spring Island Local Trust Committee (SS LTC) seeks applications for its Advisory Planning Commissions and Board of Variance.

Advisory Planning Commission

The Advisory Planning Commission (APC) consists of up to 11 members. It advises the SS LTC on community planning and development matters including Official Community Plan and Land Use Bylaw amendments, development applications, and SS LTC projects. Appointments are for a 2-year term.

Agriculture Advisory Planning Commission

The Agricultural Advisory Planning Commission (AAPC) consists of up to 7 members. It advises the SS LTC on community planning and development related to farming and agriculture such as Agricultural Land Reserve (ALR) applications and current projects. Applicants should have a background in farming or agriculture. Appointments are for a 2-year term.

Board of Variance

The Board of Variance consists of 3 members. The Board reviews and make decisions on Board of Variance applications. Individuals with previous local government experience and a background in land use planning and development are especially encouraged to apply. Appointments are for a 3-year term and meetings are infrequent.

If you are interested, please submit a completed application and resume by April 30, 2022
