SUMMARY OF REGULATIONS: SOIL REMOVAL AND/OR DEPOSIT ON SALT SPRING ISLAND

Before registering your plans for the soil removal or deposit of more than 40 cubic metres of material, or applying for a permit to remove or deposit over 100 cubic metres of material, you will need to have the following information:

- ✓ Knowledge of any riparian areas on the property, including where the natural boundary of the shore lies as well as any creeks, ponds, or wetlands that may exist.
- ✓ Knowledge of whether the property is within a Development Permit Area (DPA) and whether a development permit is needed for the work proposed.
 - Please refer to Volume 2 of the Salt Spring Official Community Plan Bylaw No. 434 by following the links below or by enquiring at the Salt Spring Office of the Islands Trust.
 - Policies for each DPA can be found at:
